

Who We Are...

Marilyn McGaw

"An exceptional home is both a person retreat and a public statement"

Marilyn McGaw, President and Principal Designer, explained. "My goal is to create unique and beautiful home environments.

Our team of talented designers strive to meet and exceed our client's expectations on all projects and provide a truly remarkable interior design experience. We owe our success to the "hands-on" approach we use before, during and after the design process."

Her expertise in working with manufacturers, contractors and trades people allow for a full range of design and renovation services.

Marilyn's twenty plus years in the interior design industry includes ownership of a wholesale "to the trade" showroom and Design Direction for a national interior design firm where Marilyn supervised twenty-five design professionals. Her responsibilities included the design and implementation of projects ranging from $25,000 to $1 million dollars including thirteen developers' builder models.

In her current position Marilyn accepts design commissions in employs a variety of design styles formulated from conceptual development to final installation.
